

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
Karnataka Regional Branch
Bengaluru

Report on Special Lecture

The Karnataka Regional Branch of IIPA, in collaboration with the University Law College, Bangalore University, Bengaluru organized a Special Lecture by Dr. Amar Kumar Pandey, IPS (Retd.), former Director-General of Police, Karnataka, on the theme, “Extradition – Law and Practice” on Saturday, 17th May 2025 in the Prof. V.B. Coutinho Auditorium in the college. Dr. Pandey made a scholarly presentation on the subject, based on his experience in the successful extradition of the notorious Don Ravi Pujari from Senegal, for which he was duly honoured by the Karnataka Government. He informed the audience that the story of this extradition has been narrated by him in his book A Don’s Nemesis. Dr. Pandey’s talk was followed by a lively interaction with Law students.

Guest of Honour at the event Shri T.M. Vijay Bhaskar, IAS (Retd.), former Chief Secretary of Karnataka and Chairperson of IIPA-KRB gave introductory remarks. Prof. Dr. N. Dasharath, Principal of ULC delivered the Presidential remarks. Prof. Dr. Jyothi Vishwanath welcomed the gathering and introduced the Speaker and Guest of Honour. Dr. D. Jeevan Kumar, Secretary of the Branch proposed a Vote of Thanks. The event was ably anchored by Ms. Shubhalekha, LLM student at ULC.

Photo below shows Dr. Pandey delivering the Special Lecture.

A Section of the Audience at the Lecture

